

WHAT IS A CUSTODIAN?

A custodian is a third party financial institution that holds your investments for safekeeping. As your trusted advisor, I determine the best investment strategies for you based on your financial priorities. Then, we partner with large, reputable firms to hold your assets in the strategies we select. This adds another level of trust and transparency to my relationship with you.